

Working on this group assignment went pretty well. My understanding of classes has improved. My groupmate Adam helped me with some logic errors I had when trying to implement the two player system. But then we worked on some other stuff together as well. Overall this group project went pretty well. I do have to practice on my own and get better so I don't always have to ask for help when doing my part of the project.